Purpose of the paper

To inform the Board that Healthy Minds has successfully completed Quality for Health and been awarded Level 2.

Background and context

The Quality for Health is a quality assurance scheme for voluntary sector organisations delivering health services.

Where are we now?

The assessor "visited" Healthy Minds in December and his report is attached. The requirements were successfully met, and we have been awarded a Level Two. We have been commended by our assessor for the commitment and passion for the organisation, shown by all those with whom he spoke.

What are the key issues?

There are recommendations for the short term and medium – long-term development of the organisation on pages 34-35, but the whole report gives a detailed description of the process and the assessor's observations.

What is asked of trustees?

To look at the report with particular reference to the recommendations.

Finance
